ABOUT THE ARTIST

Anna Koch is an Austrian clarinet and bass clarinet player specializing in contemporary and improvised music. She graduated with honors from the University of Music & Performing Arts Vienna in 2017. The artist has been praised for her “truly playful mind with an urge to explore the gamut of both her instrument and her imagination.” Her solo program BASSticcio premiered in 2022.

Anna Koch has been selected as a representative of contemporary music for NASOM, the New Austrian Sound of Music, 2023/24. She is also one of the women featured in CALLIOPE Join the Dots, which is a project of the Austrian Ministry of European and International Affairs and the Frauenmuseum Hittisau. It features women of Austria who are shaping our society through their actions, and who are a source of inspiration.

UPCOMING ACF DC EVENTS

CHASE AWAY THE FEARS

Welcome actor Helmut Mooshammer and pianist Senka Brankovic for a music & literature program that celebrates Jewish cultural life of the 19th and 20th century in Austria and Germany. The artists will interweave readings from various authors, e.g. Stefan Zweig and Viktor Frankl, with music by Hans Gál, Walter Arlen and many more. All readings are in English.

SOLITAIRE

Join us for SOLITAIRE, a classical concert by the Austrian violinist Johannes Fleischmann and pianist Christoph Ulrich Meier. This program consists of little-known works for violin and piano, all of them musical gems by famous composers like Richard Wagner, Franz Liszt or Johannes Brahms, who influenced each other either as friends, patrons or even antipodes, many of them inspired by famous violinists of their time.

AUNER QUARTETT

As passionate chamber musicians, the Auner Quartett strives to present their unique rhetorical voice within the music, and to bring the Viennese musical patrimony and individual emotional approach into a musical melting pot. In concert at the ACF DC, they will play arrangements from various time periods, including works by W.A. Mozart, Hugo Wolf and Franz Kreisler.
